

Monticchia

Sarteano - Tuscany

Monticchia is a carefully restored country house on a 1700-acre estate located in the Val d'Orcia region in southern Tuscany. This extraordinarily beautiful stretch of Italy sits between Rome and Florence with open, breathtaking views to Mount Amiata, with the unchanged landscape reminiscent of old master paintings. The nearby San Casciano dei Bagni is a beautiful, unspoiled medieval village, and a rather well-kept secret south of Siena. The villa lies one and a half hours from the Rome and Florence airports. Larger groups can also rent the nearby Villa Aiola, which is part of the same estate.

SPECIAL CHARACTERISTICS:

Monticchia provides maximum comfort in a peaceful, refined and very private atmosphere. Guests can enjoy walks and bike rides through the property's private paths, and visits to the nearby Montepulciano, Montalcino, and Cetona—famous for their history, cuisine and wineries. A one-kilometer trail leads from the villa to the town of Sarteano. Also close is San Casciano dei Bagni—its best-kept secret is an old Roman spa offering the therapeutic thermal spring waters and beauty and health treatments. Enjoy typical local cuisine at Monticchia, prepared by a Tuscan cook.
