

Villa La Quiete

Lake Como

Villa La Quiete is a famous and magnificent aristocratic estate on the western shore of Lake Como, originally owned by a very wealthy and prominent Italian family. It is comprised of a central villa and two lateral wings; the first and second level of the central structure features a museum with the historic furnishings, art and antiques of the original home (tours must be pre-arranged). The lateral wings have been spectacularly renovated to create five luxurious and regal suites preserving the villa's character and history, while offering all the comforts and amenities of today.
